WHAT IS TRANSITIONAL CARE?

Transitional Care provides a recuperative and supportive place to heal following an injury, surgery, or serious illness. From changes to one's daily schedule to the adjustments necessary to regain independence – our care team of nurses, case managers, and therapists manage these transitions. Be assured that we will help you or your family member regain the strength and confidence needed for a safe return home, all while being treated with respect and kindness.

“ The growth of our Transitional Care Services and the development of this new and expanded facility is an exciting opportunity for us to enhance the experience of our patients. This warm and private environment is ideal for effective healing and strengthening while maintaining a high degree of safety and reliability in our patient's care. ”

*Mike McCafferty, Chief Executive Officer
Sheridan Memorial Hospital*

“I really had such comfort with the staff. They came every day and it was fun to expect them. Never did I have any concern that wasn't fulfilled. I felt in good hands and I was able to – if you don't mind the expression – ‘have fun with it.’”

Dr. Sy Thickman

Sheridan Memorial Hospital's 2nd and 3rd floors house our new Transitional Care Unit which includes 20 comfortable private suites, each with its own bathroom. Complete with a private dining area and spacious therapy gym with striking views of the Big Horn Mountains in a 15,000 square foot space.

“ I was surprised by the level of community I found. It was kind of like a college dormitory. You are sharing a space: you’re sharing the dining room, you’re sharing the therapy and you’re sharing your pains and aches and worries. The TCU feels like TLC. ”
